11th FRENCH OPEN PARIS-CHARTRES

Saturday 1st & Sunday 2nd of July 2017

GENERAL INFORMATION

Dear Friends,

The French Swimming Federation has the great pleasure to invite you to participate in the 11th French Open to be held on July, Saturday 1st and Sunday 2nd. After Paris and Vichy, the French Open is moving to Chartres.

The venue which welcomed the 2012 Short Course EC and the 2015 & 2016 FINA World Cup will be the theatre of French summer dashes for the next years in its amazing 50m outdoor pool.

TRANSPORT

The Organizing Committee is taking care of the Local Transportation. It includes ground transfers from official airport or train station and competition shuttles.

Transfers: a warm and professional welcome will be organized at the official airports in Paris and/or at the train station in Chartres, on your arrival and for your departure.

Shuttles: Shuttles will be organized to drive you from your hotels toward the pool every day, from Wednesday 28th till Sunday 2nd.

OFFICIAL AIRPORT

1 hour away from Chartres, the International Paris Airports (Paris Orly & Paris Charles-de-Gaulle) will be the official airports of the competition.

Please note that Paris Orly is much closer from Chartres than Paris CDG.

Too far from the venue, Ryanair-airport Paris-Beauvais is NOT an official airport.

CHARTRES TRAIN STATION

You can also reach Chartres by train from Paris Montparnasse train station from a one hour journey over 30 times a day.
