PRIZE MONEY

PRIZE MONEY: 50 000 €

1st: 7 000 euros	6th: 1 500 euros
2nd: 5 000 euros	7th: 1 000 euros
3rd: 4 000 euros	8th: 750 euros
4th: 3 000 euros	9th: 500 euros
5th: 2 000 euros	10th: 250 euros

- The Prize Money system implemented during the French Open 2017 will reward the 20 Most Valuable Swimmers (10 males and 10 females) according to a ranking established with the FINA Table “Long Course 2017”.
- If a swimmer is ranked more than once within the Top 10, only his/her best swim will be considered.
- In case of tie, the swimmers will share the prizes (e.g.: two third places, 4 000 € + 3 000 € = 7 000 €, means 3 500 € per swimmer).
- The performances taken into account for the attribution of the prize money are those realized during the most important race of the event (finals or the best heat in case there would be no final).

ADDITIONAL PRIZES

New World Record:	10 000 €
New European Record:	5 000 €
New French Open Record:	1 000 €

- Prize for World and/or European record will be rewarded to the final record holder, at the end of the event. A European swimmer cannot cumulate World record and European record prizes for the same swim.
- World/European Records broken at any stage of the competition will be taken into account for the grant of prizes, at the only condition that that swimmer takes part into the finals of the races.
- Event Record (aka French Open Record) can be broke only during the most important race of the event (finals or the best heat in case there would be no final).
